As Lent begins we draw aside to be with our Savior. Our subject throughout Lent and up to Holy Week is the kingdom of Jesus. When you belong to Jesus, you do belong to a kingdom – a marvelous one – which begins now, and extends forever. So, let's explore it. We began with Jesus, the Good Shepherd. A real live sheep in our yard, "Skippy," gave us the image. Thanks to Charlie Glover who made that image real for all of us as he shared what it means to care for, provide for, and protect his own sheep.

We explore what Jesus' kingdom is like because the more we know about it, the more able we are to trust the goodness of God and the plan of God for our lives. God gives us purpose in all things, both good and bad, when we entrust our lives to Him. So each week we gather in the sanctuary to have a "Conversation with God," where we listen for God's voice in a passage of Scripture. God can indeed speak to us through the Holy Spirit, and as we share what we heard, we learn from each other. We've also got a special blessing in that Julie Bayless leads us each week in songs of praise and hymns on the guitar.

Then Holy Week centers around music and drama as we experience the last two days of Jesus' life on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday. The Worship Ministry Team has worked hard on writing and planning these services, as has Choir Director, Andrew Dittman. And, throughout the day and into the evening Friday (except for the hours of the service) we will have a prayer vigil.

All of these things invite us to open our lives to Jesus Christ, who opens His life to us. The church is a place of invitation, of hope, and of newness of life. Use some of those words as you invite your friends and neighbors.

Easter Sunday morning begins at 6:30 am. we'll gather on the patio for a casual sunrise service led by Steve Netniss to celebrate Jesus' resurrection. Breakfast follows, and then the regular worship service at 10:30. The choir will sing the "Hallelujah Chorus, A Soulful Celebration," accompanied by instrumentation. What a blessing to seek Jesus together. May your faith be encouraged more than ever.

Blessings,

Ginger

Words from Worship

The Legend of the Dogwood

There's a legend that the dogwood was once the size of the oak and other forest trees. It was so strong and firm that it was chosen as the timber of Christ's cross. This greatly distressed the tree. Jesus, nailed upon it, sensed the tree's regret and told it, "Because of your sorrow for my suffering, never again shall the dogwood grow large enough to be used as a cross. It shall be slender, bent and twisted. Its blossoms shall form a cross—two long and two short petals. And at the outer edge of each petal will be nail prints, brown with rust and stained with red. In the center of the flower shall be a crown of thorns. And all who see it will remember."

There's More!

On the first Easter morning, three women found an empty tomb. The discovery left them trembling and afraid. They didn't know there was more—a resurrected Lord. Later that day, the risen Jesus appeared. As happy as the disciples were about this miracle, they didn't yet know there was more—a gift of the Holy Spirit that would make their joy complete. Early Christians in Corinth were so delighted by the gift of baptism that they could scarcely imagine there was more—the resurrection of the body to eternal life. As great as Easter is, it's only the "first fruits" of what lies ahead. Celebrate the fact that Christ is risen, but remember that the best is yet to come!

April 24 ~ EASTER!

Sunrise Service 6:30 a.m.

Breakfast (following Sunrise Service)

Sunday School 9:15

The FPCD choir is preparing wonderful music that parallels and reacts to the drama and theology of Holy Week. The music for Maundy Thursday will be paired with dramatic readings that follow the journey from Gethsemane to the cross. Good Friday will be a simpler, more contemplative service with violin, organ, solos, and choir. Then, for Easter Sunday, the choir will sing a rousing "soulful" rendition of Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus" from Messiah. We hope to see you at all of these unique services sitting next to someone you have invited!

Maundy Thursday:

Love and Destiny in Dark Gethsemane

A Dramatic Musical Experience of Jesus' Last Night

Good Friday:

How Deep the Father's Love for Us

Both of these services are interactive experiences of the last night and day of Jesus' life.

*You may sign up in the narthex for one or more 30-minute prayer vigil periods throughout Good Friday, 6:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and 8:00 p.m. to Midnight.

From Our Youth

The Youth Group would like to welcome Hugo and Luis to our church family! Please make them feel welcomed here at church, the Youth Group is excited to have them with us. Anthony just had a birthday on March 19, so a big shout out to him! The leaders are planning some events for the Youth this summer including a mission trip with the Idaho falls gang.

Steve is going to be teaching a confirmation class on Sundays starting from 3:30pm until 4:30pm. This will be for the students who really want to take their walk with Christ to the next level. We hope to have all of our students join the class. The Youth Group and leaders are also giving up something that means a lot to them for lent. The leaders thought it would be a good idea to start a blog to help each other get past the frustration of wanting what each person has chosen to give up. The blog will encourage each other to stay committed to our goals.

We would like to have more volunteers during our Youth Group time. Especially more male volunteers, but we will have anyone who is willing to come! If you would like to be a volunteer or provide a snack for our Youth you can contact Steve Netniss.

In Christ,
Allison Jackson

Welcome, Malcolm and David!

On Sunday, March 13 we welcomed Malcolm Perrault (left) and David Hertenstein (holding daughter Evelyn, 4) into our church family, and promised to support and nurture them as members of our congregation.

As members of our FPCD choir, Malcolm and David are both men of note! Malcolm comes to us from Monrovia, CA, and David from Coppell, TX.

Sacred Inspirations...the stories behind our Hymns

Christ the Lord is Risen Today.... Charles Wesley and his brother John formed a religious ‘Holy Club’ while at Oxford because they were dissatisfied with spiritual lethargy. Their fellow students jokingly called them “Methodist” because of their methodical habits of living and studying. After an unsuccessful ministry in America, they returned to London where both had profound conversions while meeting with Moravian believers at Aldersgate. Both brothers traveled on horseback throughout Great Britain conducting more than 40,000 public services. Charles wrote over 6,500 hymn texts with hardly a day or experience passing that didn’t make its way into verse. The brothers started their first Wesleyan Chapel in London, England in 1739 in a deserted iron foundry. Charles Wesley wrote Christ the Lord is Risen Today for the first service in his chapel that came to be called the Foundry Meeting House. Originally this hymn was called Hymn for Easter Day and had 11 four line stanzas. Wesley wrote the hymn one year after his dramatic Aldersgate conversion and the hymn was later published in a collection entitled Foundry’s Collection. He chose a tune for this hymn that had first appeared anonymously in the Lyra Davidica hymnal published in 1708. The joyous Alleluia was not written by Wesley, but was added by an editor to make the text fit the tune. Alleluia (“Praise Yahweh!”), from ancient Hebrew worship, was a common expression of praise in the early Christian Church.

News from the Buucks

It has been a while since the Buucks were regularly here in our midst. Brian sang in the choir at that time and children were still in their future. They were studying at the Linguistic Center in preparation for serving in Mexico as Bible translators. Since August 2009, the Buucks, Brian and Anja with their children, Damaris, Jonah, Talitha and Keilah, have been living in Blaine, Minnesota, where they are close to Brian's side of the family. God has used their prolonged stay here to demonstrate His love and presence to them in ways they were not expecting. It has been a very full and profitable time for them, both spiritually and emotionally. Finally, they sense a "green light" from God to return to southern Mexico at the end of this year and resume their work in the areas of Bible translation, language analysis and literacy in the Chinantec language where they have served since 2004. Moreover, Brian has felt God leading him to organize seminars to provide biblical training to pastors in indigenous communities around the city of Tuxtepec, Oaxaca, and to this end he has been attending ACTS Bible College at Way of the Lord, the church where the family is involved in Minnesota.

Besides preparing for their Mexico ministry, Brian has been doing various odd jobs to pay the bills, including translation (German) and interpreting (Spanish). For her part, Anja home schools Jonah (3rd grade) and Talitha (1st grade) well as keeps the home running smoothly. Damaris tends 4th grade at Northside Christian School (also on the Way of the Lord campus) and is fast becoming an accomplished knitter. Jonah enjoys reading and drawing and helps Brian with certain jobs. Talitha takes delight her first year of school and is Anja's willing helper. Kei is growing, babbles incessantly (mostly in a language her own!) and is very generous with slobbery kisses. Although they have enjoyed the snow of Minnesota well as participating in activities such as team soccer and swimming lessons), the children are now ready for warmer climes and are looking forward to returning to Mexico!

The Buucks are now working through a mission agency named Mountain Movers International (based in Corinth, TX) and have taken a name for their ministry: Cloudburst Ministries. They can be reached by e-mail at: bri-anjabuuck@gmail.com and would enjoy hearing from friends they knew while here.

They are grateful for your prayerful support as they prepare for the next phase of their ministry.

Presbyterian Women News

PW Circle Gatherings are on Thursday, April 14. We continue through the 2010-1022 Horizons Bible study, Journeys through Revelation: Apocalyptic Hope for Today. Newcomers are always welcome!

Agape Circle will meet at 1 p.m. at the home of Ruth Yingst ~ 926 Springwood Lane, Duncanville. We will be studying lesson 7.

Sarah Circle will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Jocelyn Bolles ~ 619 Athenia Way, Duncanville. We will be studying lesson 8.

THE PW PLANT AND BAKE SALE IS COMING !! MAY 1

Plan to pick up some lovely bedding plants, other beautiful plants, and delicious baked goods at this annual spring Presbyterian Women's fund raiser!

So that that can happen, we ask that you donate plants and/or baked goods that your fellow-members can't resist! Bring your items by 10:15 a.m. please. The sale will take place on the church "patio" for a few minutes before church and definitely after church.

Please remember that the PW uses funds raised at the Plant and Bake Sale as well as at the Christmas Auction for projects here and overseas. Our special mission project this year is the Home of Hope in Harare, Zimbabwe. This is a mission to street children and their families. (Hmmm...would you say Zimbabwe is in east, west, or south Africa? Check out your March newsletter, p. 7!)

10 The Epistle

Dear Media Promotion & Outreach Team,

I have a friend who lives in a cave and eats locusts and wild honey all day, and can't possibly get out to church on Sunday, but, surprisingly, has internet access. I've invited him to our service but he's a little on the shy side. A little birdie told me that our Sunday worship service can be viewed "live" online through our website. How does that work?

*Signed,
Fred's Friend*

Dear Friend of Fred,

That sounds like a great idea. Perhaps once Fred experiences our service via Live Stream, and sees how much joy we find in "Connecting with God and sharing the Good News of Jesus," he may decide to join you one Sunday.

He can view our worship service live each Sunday, at 10:30 a.m. CT one of three different ways.

- By going directly to <http://live.fpcd.org/> OR
- By going to our website www.fpcd.org and clicking on LIVE Stream, located at the top on the menu picture. (top circle in the picture) OR
- By going to our website www.fpcd.org and clicking on the link located below "Join us LIVE on Sunday mornings at 10:30!" (bottom circle in the picture)

Once the FPCD Live Stream Player opens, if you don't see the live feed right away, please be patient, it may take a few moments to begin.

Hope to see your friend real soon.

Your friends on the Media Team

Bible Quiz

During his last supper with the Twelve (John 13), Jesus took off His outer robe, poured water into a basin and began washing His disciples' feet. One disciple, however, protested having the Lord wash his feet. Jesus told the reluctant man that unless he let Jesus wash his feet, he really had no share in Christ's leadership. The disciple then relented. He asked Jesus to wash not only his feet, but his hands and head as well. Choose the name of the disciple from the list below:

- A. Peter B. John C. Andrew D. Judas

answer A (See John 13:1-9)

Notes from Your Deacons

Your Deacons are Sandy Gaskins, Chairman; Irving Kezar, Betty Jespersen, and new Deacons Edelmira Ruiz and Connie Steger. We meet on the first Monday of each month, except the summer months. However, your Deacons are available to you all year, so please contact us if you have any concerns that need our attention.

We Deacons are focusing just now on assisting the Dea-Con-Go Life committee with the Lenten Dinners and Conversations With God Series led by Pastor Ginger (see p. 3), and on Easter activities: we will honor our elder or homebound members with a personal visit to deliver Easter baskets filled with items they may enjoy. Also, Deacons will sponsor an Easter egg hunt for the children during Sunday School on Easter Sunday (see p. 12). Watch for notices about when your child's group will be participating, so no one will miss the fun!

We Deacons wish you a blessed Easter season, as we celebrate this most joyous time in our Church's life, and in a Christian's life.
