As I write this my heart is full of gratitude for you, the people of First Presbyterian Church Duncanville. You are such a blessing to me and to those around you. Your love is evident all the time. Looking around the church I see it. Someone plants, another waters, someone sweeps the walk. The lawn is trim and beautiful. Calls come into the office about how deacons and others visited the sick or sent cards and care packages. Elders and leaders attend meetings and pray and plan. Devoted members fix broken cabinets and leaks and get estimates for repairs. Talented people write articles and design web sites and create logos. More talented people arrange music and others sing it. They lead us in all kinds of joyful songs of praise to God. Someone starts a prayer meeting and you come together and pray for each other and pray for God to lead us. You learn and tell Bible stories in worship. You cheerfully greet guests and you organize events. You teach children. You plan lessons. You love teenagers. You sponsor and encourage missionaries. You serve on Grace Presbytery committees. You make sandwiches and lemonade and cookies. You set up tables and chairs and take them down. Whew!

You do a lot! You give and give and give. I want to celebrate you. I am so grateful for you I could turn a flip! You put a smile on my face and joy in my heart and I think of you constantly.

Then you come in and tell me how you shared your faith with someone you know at work or through another organization, and Jesus Christ must be so proud. Because you also wonder what else you might do or say to help others to know His wonderful love.

Thank you, again and again. Your faith is evident to all. Truly all of you exemplify what it means to know God and I LOVE being here and I love all of you. Can't wait until next Sunday.

See you Sunday!
Ginger

SYMBOLS of our faith...Symbols of the Twelve Apostles

The twelve Apostles chosen by Jesus to be His special representatives were “Peter, James the son of Zebedee, John the brother of James, Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot.” Mark 3:16-19 They are frequently represented by symbols.

Andrew, Peter’s brother, was the first called to be one of Jesus’ Twelve. He is symbolized by an “X” - shaped cross, called a Saltire Cross. Tradition says that while Andrew was preaching in Greece, he was put to death by crucifixion on a cross of this type. Today this cross is called a Saint Andrew’s cross in honor of the courageous apostle. Andrew is the patron saint of Greece, Russia and Scotland. The Scots’ flag has a white Saint Andrew’s cross on a blue background representing the sky.

PROPERTY REPORT

July 2009

ACTIVITY:

1. After the last heavy rains, there were small leaks noted in sound room. Christian Brothers considering what to do next.
2. Continuing lawn mowing and edging by church volunteers. Eddie Everett, Grant Everett, Anna Murphy, Nick Peacock, Dean Hertenstein, Lori Glover, Charlie Glover, and Paul Barton mowed, edged, etc. Dick Bergman is maintaining lawn equipment as needed.
3. Flower & tree watering team continuing watering & planting as needed.
4. A small leak developed in the plumbing connection at the coffee maker in the kitchen. Apparently no one noticed for several weeks. The counter top and cabinetry under the coffee maker was damaged. The repairs cost about $1,900. (About 2/3 of the counter top was damaged.) We replaced all the Formica at the same time to make things match. Also replaced the faucet assembly at the sink was replaced, which had a small long-term leak and had rusted in place.
5. The plumbed-in coffee maker has been replaced with one that has no plumbing to avoid this problem in the future.
6. The compressor fan blade in the A/C unit for the office area bent, jammed in place, and burned out the motor. Since that particular unit was more than 25 years old (5 years beyond average wear-out), we decided to replace it rather than repair it. We got 2 quotes for the replacement, and accepted the one from Coomes. They gave us a discount because we also have a regular maintenance contract with them. Their $5,500 quote was $700 lower than the second quote. Includes using a crane to get it up on the roof, and some custom ductwork to match up with our A/C plenum.

DEACONS' DINNER & TALENT SHOW

SEPT. 12th

If you attended the Deacons' Dinner last September, you probably remember the uproarious good time we had! This year, we are planning to have a TALENT SHOW following the Deacons Dinner on September 12th, so please mark your calendars now and plan to attend!

We have a remarkable amount and variety of talent in our congregation, so dust off your top hat/dancing shoes, guitar or other musical instrument, brush up that favorite old comedy routine, etc. and share in a fun-filled evening! Please contact Nancy Bergman, Mary Huttar, Betty Jespersen, Sean Russell, Sandy Gaskins or Gail Haynes regarding participating in this show. WE NEED YOU!

PW NEWS

Our Circle Meetings will resume again in September and our study for the coming year will be from Joshua. We are again using the Horizons Bible Study which is available to us from our National PW Organization.

There is a daytime and an evening Circle. The meeting places, dates and times are printed in the Announcements Section of the weekly Sunday Bulletins, as well as in the monthly Newsletters. This information will be available around the middle of August for the September meetings. If you have any questions about the Circle meetings, please contact Helen Barton or Joan Brown.

Joshua

A Journey of Faith by Mary Mikhael

In the nine lessons of Joshua: A Journey of Faith, Mary Mikhael invites us to explore the challenging, sometimes heartrending, book of Joshua. Pursuing such themes as leadership, the promise of land, the concept of “holy war,” and outsiders becoming insiders, we learn ultimately to find rest in the justice and mercy of God.

“Handbags for Hope”—Many thanks to all who came to the Swim, Salad and Sundae Supper in June and participated in the Handbags for Hope project. We brought new or nearly new handbags along with various toiletry and personal care items to fill the bags. These handbags were then given to several area women’s shelters. We also enjoyed good food and fellowship while helping to support this very worthy project.

GOOD NEWS CLUB

54 kids heard the gospel in our 5 Day Club at the Cielo Ranch Apartments during the 2nd week in July . 5 Day Clubs are the summer programs offered by Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF). CEF brings in a team of 2 or 3 teenagers to lead the club while a sponsor, in this case, Sharon Ingram, chaperones and provides a snack. We averaged 24 kids each day and 4 kids accepted Christ as their Savior!

This is a wonderful program that anyone can host. Child Evangelism Fellowship has been sharing the Good News with boys and girls since 1937. That's over 70 years! Our own church has previously donated money for Bibles for these kids, has assisted in leading the Good News Clubs, prayed for the kids and provided snacks. Currently Sharon and her mom, Pat Sparr, lead the Good News Club at the apartments on Saturday mornings from 10-11am during the school year. But it doesn't have to stop there! If you would like to lead a club, you can find an apartment or even a school (yes, it's "legal" to lead an after school club even in our public schools!) or help Sharon and Pat for the 2009-2010 school year. We could use more hands, snacks, new NIV Adventure Bibles and prayers. Please consider being a part of this ministry.
